The segment - event seed of most of the forfect area of the service will be the service of the second of the second service of the 160th the segment - and all the darked men from Cumberland and Filture. It is concerded on all hands that a point of discipling, efficien-y and behavior generally, it was unarran-

all most that a period discipling, efficiency y and behavior generally, it was unsurpa-sed by any regioner in the service. The men as visue, were of our own best critices, and they were not fortunates in their offi-sers. Col. David B. M. Kibbin, of the reg-sing army, was entrasted with the command-and while he entored it the mest thorough discipling he would not be respect and affection of als men. Indeed it has ray been the fortune of a officer to bring to make a night dogree of drill and order generally raw troops, and at the same time preserve the archest the normand. We ray trops, and at the same time preserv-the arbitratic fluenci of his command. We would indeed that no worse officer than (a). GLOOM IN MERKLOOM.

Never before in the history of the war have the traitors of the South so widely felt the utter hopelesances of their bad cause as now. From one end of the so-called Confederacy to end of the so-called Confederacy to the other, there comes up a universal wail of despondency, and the arch-fiend of the bloody drama pleads as if in the midnight of despair to have himself sustained still a little longer in his career of crime. He has issued a long proclamation, in which he whines piteously to his lessor com-rades in treason to rally to this slat-tored and despairing ranks, and com-plains that there is a want of alacrity in responding to, the call for men.

The rebels have ever looked with a plish what the bonest voters steadily refu ed to sanction ; and her Execu tive was steeped in treason, and only conset his efforts to carry her out when he was driven from office by the decisive declaration of the people in favor of the Union. Since then Kentucky has vibrate like the unsettled needle, because of faithless or timid Union men who at-The the intervent means, where the intervent of the line of the Union men who at-tempted to lead her locaely in the rear-guard of the Union cause; but whenever the ballot-box could utter the sentiments of her sons, they have declared for the Union without condition or qualification. So they did two years ago; again a year ago, and now they have chosen a straight-out Union Governor for four years, by some 80,000 majority, and very member of Congress is squarely for the government, and implacably against treason, whether in armed traitors or in Northern aympathizers. Thus progresses the good cause in Union State Convention.

Pitrantas, August 6.—The Union State Convention assembled this morning, at 11 Velock, as Concert Hall. Genc. C. P. Markla, chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order. James Campbell, of Schwichtlit contry, moninated H. D. Mazwell, of Northampton.
