Selected Poetry.

The Purchase of Love.

Oh, say not woman's heart is bought,
By vain and empty treasures,
Oh, say not woman's heart is bought,
By every-day pleasures.

Miscellaneous.

"Old Hundred"

"Can you find a tomb in the lands where The dead are laid,
If they were gray old men, they had Not joined with the endless company,
Where it has, and without the calling sign, Sounded on sacred air. The dear little child, Looking with wondering eyes on this Strange world, have loved it. The sweet Young girl whose tombstone told of sixteen Summers, whose pure and innocent face haunted you with its mild beauty, loved Old Hundred, and, as she sang it, closed her eyes, and seemed communing with the angels who were soon to claim her. He whose husband was devoted to the service of his God, and who with loving steps, ascended the pulpit stairs, with white hand placed over his laboring breast, loved "Old Hundred." And though sometimes his lips only moved, away down in his heart, so soon to cease its throbs, the holy melody was sounding. The dear white-headed father, with his tremulous voice, how he loved "Old Hundred." Do you see him now, sitting in the venerable arm chair, his arms crossed over the top of his cane, his silver locks floating off from his hollow temples, and a tear, perchance, stealing down his furrowed cheek, as the noble strains ring out? Do you hear that throbbing, quivering, faltering sound now brushing forth, now listened for almost in vain? If you do not, we do; and from such lips, hallowed by four-score years service in the Master's cause, "Old Hundred" sounds indeed a sacred melody.

Gov. Chase of Ohio.

The following incident, related by a correspondent of the Huntsville (Ala.) Democrat, will afford our readers an opportunity of learning something of the kind feeling with which the abolitionists are regarded by the proslavery Ohio Abolitionists.

WYNOPSIS OF MESSAGE II.

The Governor commences Message No. 2 with compliments and thanks to military and individuals who did service at Harper's Ferry and Charleston. He says: "I shall continue a sufficient military force until after the 16th, and urge upon you, in anticipation of a withdrawal of troops, an efficient organization and arming of the border from the Point of Rocks to Wheeling."
