

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Staunton Spectator.

STAUNTON, VA.

Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1861.

Wood.

Those who desire to pay their respects in wood can do so by having us good foods and good wine.

Mr. John B. Soder Killed.

Wednesday night last, at ten o'clock, Mr. Jas. B. Soder of this place was killed by Henry J. Webster, of Murray county, Tennessee, a soldier belonging to the 1st Tennessee Regiment, Colossal Massing commandant. Mr. Soder was employed in Mr. Joe's Cook's restaurant, where he was attending to his duties when Webster entered with his pistol in his hand and asked him to stop. He was informed by Mr. Soder that he could not furnish them as his supply was exhausted. Webster, in a very peremptory manner, demanded that he should, at his return. Mr. Soder told him that he did not know where any could be obtained at that time. Webster swore that he should get them, aimed his pistol and shot Mr. Soder in the head. The ball entered above the left eye and penetrated the brain. He lived from 10 to 8 o'clock. He was a very deserving young man, possessed a good character, and had a social, kind and accomodating disposition. He leaves a young wife and child to mourn his sad and untimely death. The jury of inquest held over the body of the deceased rendered a verdict of wilful and malicious murder. The prisoner had his examining trial on Thursday and was committed to the county jail. There was very great and exacting of the morning after the conclusion of the dreadful deed among the friends of the victim, and a very strong disposition prevailed to take the prisoner from the hands of the authorities and execute him by the summary process of Lynch law.

Obligations.

We desire to publish notices of deaths in the community and would be pleased to receive the name, age and residence as soon as possible.—This is often neglected by the friends of the persons who die and we are, consequently, unable to publish any notice of them. Editors are presumed to know a great deal, but they do not know the names, ages, and residences of all who die, and are so ignorant that, unless informed, they would not know that any one had died.—We do not wish to be understood as desiring lengthy obituaries—on the contrary, our tastes are entirely opposed to that kind of literature.—Bravery is great virtue in obituaries. Our contemporaries generally have placed a "blockade" upon lengthy obituaries, and do not allow them to enter the "ports" of their journals, when they exceed ten lines, without "paying a duty" of 10 cents per line. This is a "riff," which we do not wish to impose, but will be compelled to follow the example of other journals if obituaries requested to be published can not very brief.

Collection of the War Tax.

As the Confederate tax bill provides that any State resuming the payment of her portion of the war tax shall be entitled to a reduction thereon of ten per cent. on the whole amount, the Lexington Gazette maintains that the State of Virginia should do as other States have done, and take the collecting and payment of it into her own hands. If she sees proper she can then negotiate with the Confederate government, or for taxes for the payment of the tax, and attend to the liquidation of it in such manner and at such time as she may deem best calculated to suit the convenience of her people. In that way she could dispense with the Chief Collector and his salary of two thousand per annum—together with his army of sub and their commissions of eight hundred dollars apiece.

Getting Their Eyes Open.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times says that "there is authority for saying that the President and Mr. Seward are both now convinced that the South are unites as one man in this attempt to achieve for themselves a separate nationality, and that, to crush the rebellion and conquer a peace, it will be necessary to call forth the entire strength of the loyal States, and to put into the field at once, not half a million, but a million of troops. This will be urged in the forthcoming President's message as a sine qua non for the successful prosecution of the war."

Admission of Missouri.

Our Confederate Congress, in secret session, has ratified the convention concluded between the Confederate States Government and the Commissioners on the part of the State of Missouri. The convention is signed by Secretary Hunter on the part of the Government, and by Messrs. E. C. Cabell and Thomas L. Sneed, Commissioners on the part of the State of Missouri. The terms of the convention are in conformity to the Act of Congress approved August 20, 1851, providing for the admission of Missouri into the Confederacy on her adopting an appropriate ordinance of secession.

Gen. Floyd's Command.

Gen. Rosecrans having been reinforced, and greatly outnumbering Gen. Floyd, and being about to cut him off by getting in his rear, Gen. Floyd fled his purpose by retreating to the right beyond the road in his rear by which the enemy expected to come upon him. By this move he made his escape, and retreated to Petersburg, in Monroe county, where he is now encamped and will probably remain during the winter.

Shoes with wooden Soles.

We were about a few days since, by a citizen of this place, a pair of shoes with wooden soles which were made in Bucks county. We were enabled to find that such good shoes could be made in that way. They are very warm, as they keep the feet perfectly dry, though not quite so pleasant to the feet as leather shoes as the soles are stiff. They make a fast rate for service, and can be purchased much cheaper than leather shoes.

The Prayer Course.

The Editors of the Washington Daily express, in their last number, a purpose to "free their loved and to stoke from their bosom" the names of all subscribers who have not paid promptly, suggesting thereby the following good reason:—"Paper is now so high, ten cents, and too difficult to procure, to whom it is given to let it go who do not pay as soon as paper or printing."

Another Note.

At two o'clock, on Sunday morning last, two carriage-making shops belonging to Mr. Jas. M. Hardy, of this place, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated to be about $1500. It is not known how the fire originated.

The Convention adjourned on the 3d inst., after much debate, to transfer the election of Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals and of the Circuit Court, from the people to the General Assembly.

Gen. Rosecrans, who has had command of the armies, has been appointed Major-General of the Forces of Georgia, to command in that State. He has accepted this appointment.

We have been informed to state that Gen. Rosecrans has been given the rank of Major-General of the Forces of Georgia, to command in that State. He has accepted this appointment.

Reorganization of the Militia.

The bill for reorganizing the militia, the clauses of which we noticed last week, was passed by the Convention and adopted to secretion on Friday last. As amended it provides that all persons subject to military duty in this Commonwealth shall be classed as follows: All over twenty-one years of age, and under thirty-one shall constitute the active class, and all the rest shall constitute the reserve. The Governor is to forthwith cause a rearrangement of regiments and company districts, divisions and brigades of the militia, and cause one company of each class to be enrolled in each company district. The enrollment is to be made by present statements of companies, or, in case of their absence, inability, refusal, or failure to act, by each persons of the Governor may appoint, who shall be allowed suitable compensation. In time of war, commands of regiments may cause enrollment to be made whenever recruits are needed for their respective commands. The classification is to extend in the organization of divisions, brigades, regiments, battalions, and companies—each being as separate and distinct from the other, general and field officers of the militia and volunteers to be appointed by the Governor—the reserve to serve under the General officers of the militia class. In time of war, however, the Governor may refuse from making appointments of General officers, or from calling them into service, and may permit the troops to serve under the General officers appointed by the President of the Confederate States, but without prejudice to the Constitutional rights of this Commonwealth. Volunteer companies to elect four commissioned officers, and vacancies in volunteer and militia companies to be filled as heretofore. All who spike opposed to the General in Chief of the nation, and proposed that he should go to Charlestown and County Harper's Ferry and attack the rebels at that point. Three regiments to be started at Louisville daily, and sent forward towards Bowling Green. General Nelson's command has been withdrawn from Peterboro to the mouth of the Sandy, from which point they were sent to Louisville, Wild Cat, and Camp Dick Robinson. Troops seem to be concentrating at Danville and Grand Orchard.

General Patterson did not obtain Gen. Johnson at Winchester.

On the 26th ult., at Philadelphia, Gen. Patterson made a speech explanatory of his operations in Virginia, and giving the reasons why he did not prevent Gen. Johnson from retreating. The account says that at Bull Run, and was caused by General Hardee's attack from Bowling Green. The panic was increased by the fact that Hardee had in his command one-fourth thousand men more. The Convention says: "We have no heart to comment on such facts."

A gentleman arrived here on yesterday who passed through Louisville on the 16th instant. Two thousand Federal cavalry arrived at Lexington on that day, who are said to have come from Ohio.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—General McCook has ordered six Ohio and two Indiana regiments to Kentucky from West Virginia. There is a probability that other Indiana regiments will soon follow. A Northern regiment will pass through here during to-night.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 20.—Movements in Louisville and elsewhere in Kentucky afford indications of early movements to the Federal army. The 10th Indiana, which has been here, has marched to Frankfort for their respective regiments. Three regiments to be started at Louisville daily, and sent forward towards Bowling Green.

On the 18th he was directed to go where he had previously, and was informed that Mattox would be attacked on Tuesday, the 19th. On the 18th, he was telegraphed: "It is strong enough to beat the enemy next week make demonstration so as to entice him in, and on the 16th, the day Gen. Scott said he would attack Mansfield, he drove the enemy's troops into the fortifications at Winchester and on the 17th marched to Charlestown.

On the 18th he telegraphed to the General-in-Chief that Johnson was in a position to have the number of twelve or fifteen at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The owner of the house debased our squad and fired upon our men, killing one and wounding one or two others. Men charged upon the house, set fire to it, and burnt up all the men in it, except two who escaped. A detachment of twenty-two cavalry arrived at Frankfort last night to arrest the parties implicated.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Louisville Courier of yesterday learns that a squad of twelve were sent to Frankfort, Ky., on Monday last, to arrest the men who were responsible for the massacre at the house of one of their number. The

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

A Furious Fighting Parson.
A Columbus correspondent of the Musket, Admirer, describing the battle of Belmont, "gives rather heavily" on Parson Brady. Play the good man should have given it very angry:

It would be futile to particularize instances of bravery and desperate courage shown by our gallant troops on the field. Let a few follow—
Parson Brady, of Tappan's regiment, after shooting two of the enemy, seized another by the shoulder, and with two strokes of his bowie, cut his throat from ear to ear, and running on the now retreating foe, he exclaimed, "Go to hell, you d—d sons of bitches." The boys tease him very much for this rather unusual manner of discussing an audience.

A Federal Parson.

A New York paper says that a wedding party passed through Kinston, a few days since, which never had its prototype in the whole train of Hymen's devoes. The following items are to regard to this peculiar couple will satisfy every one that "matrimonial sweets" were never measured out on so small a scale before. Their prospective ages are 21 and 20 years. Their respective heights, three feet six inches, and two feet seven inches. The gentleman is a brother of the celebrated General Nutt, Tom Thumb's great rival. The lady is known as the Fairy Queen, formerly Miss Sarah Bolton. The happy pair were on their way to the little lady's home from their bridal trip to Niagara Falls.

The Smartest Thing Yet.

Some wonderful things have been done during the war, but the smartest thing yet was at the battle of Pickett's Mill. The Confederate forces consisted of 740 men, 610 infantry and 130 cavalry. Of these the federal troops killed 600 and took 970 prisoners. What became of the balance we are unable to learn. We hope they are yet living to resent of their treason. The success of the Federal cause can no longer be doubted. We can see the Confederates at every striking—seen at lying—Brooklyn (N.Y.) City News.

Staunton Spectator.

RICHARD MAUZY, Editor & Proprietor

TERMS.

"The Spectator" is published once a week, a few dollars and fifty cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

All annual advertisements will be limited to their moderate expenses, or the understandings agreed for at time of rate.

PROFESSIONAL CHARGE, not exceeding seven dollars, will be inserted each week $100 for months for $40 for six months, $100 for 12 months.

Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be paid in advance by the payment of five dollars for any sum withdrawn.

No subscription will be discontinued but at the option of the Editor, until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We are pleased to receive general correspondence, and to make room for such advertising as we consider meritorious. Larger advertising is inserted in the same proportion.

A