

which have been more than doubly paid by every other soldier who has been so poorly treated by the law.

He has committed a series of acts, which, combined and put together, would lead him to believe he would be tried in the court of Justice where the wrongs were exposed, but he is right to do. Where the laws of the state, country, and all the principles of justice and humanity, are failing to obtain justice and equity.

We learn this application has been made to Governor Davis to return Forney back to Falaise county for trial. We may be mistaken, but the master of Falaise will take the master into serious consideration, and see in his proceedings to vindicate the dignity and reverence of the law and Court of the Commonwealth.

Broadly Coal.

The Framers of the Constitution of the state of U. S. Ogden says that threats of violence were made to intimidated men and influence the election, and they add:

By this time, now measured in living years, Mr. C. H. Bachelder, a Democrat, was the last Senator. Both ends of House are now manned by the Republicans. Both ends are now in the hands of the Republicans, and not only to speak them, but also to speak them.

This is the condition we have been coming from Congress for a long time. It is really revolving over more to read in a Republican newspaper, that "every man is permitted to vote his conscience, and not only to vote them, but also to speak them." We have had two years of Mob rule, during which all sorts of outrages were committed by Republicans. Mob rules were torn down and the lives of peaceful citizens were put in jeopardy on account of their political opinions. Democrats were insulted whenever they happened to come in contact with a crowd of Republicans. We are so much rejoiced to learn that the good old time of "free speech and a free press" has returned, when every man will be allowed not only to vote his conscience, but also to speak them." We thank God, and take courage.

Honesty and Corruption.

We publish in our paper to-day the statement of T. Jefferson Boyer, member of the Pennsylvania legislature, and made with the fact he was over 45 years of age. This satisfied the Commissioner, a second time, that Forney was over 45 years of age, and he took his pen and drew a line over the words "not exempted" and the word "drafted." Forney, considering himself older, of course, remained at home and did not report for duty. When the Provost Guard arrived in Fulton county for the purpose of arresting deserters and drafted men, who had not reported, through the negligence of the Commissioner, or some other cause, the name of John A. Forney appeared on the list furnished them by the Commissioner. The Guard, of course, proceeded to arrest Forney, who, before the Commissioner with one of his neighbors who made said that he knew Forney to be over 45 years of age. This satisfied the Commissioner, a second time, that Forney was over 45 years of age, and he took his pen and drew a line over the words "not exempted" and the word "drafted." Forney, considering himself older, of course, remained at home and did not report for duty.

When only a few months ago Abolitionists raised alarms, Justice was driven away from this land. Butcher was coming back, after her brief exile. Fanatics have wasted its strength in fury, and a free people, emancipated by no righteous, merciful, popular, and wise commander. In this it was helped along by the efforts of McMillan, and if the experiment did not work as well as might have been expected, it was still a success, and will support us in our cause for the sake of the "weak and wayward," and those who have been deluged in this country.

It is going to rain and the liberties of the people trembling upon the brink of a storm.

Since was failed, for one, in his attempt to corrupt the Legislature and to secure his elevation to office through bribery, as we have every reason to believe he succeeded in doing on several previous occasions.

We understand the Legislature has initiated an investigation of the matter, and we hope they will prosecute it until every guilty party is brought to justice.

We may have more to say on this subject hereafter.

A Contract.

We ask readers to contrast the fat and imperial statements of the Falaise county shooting affair from the Falaise. It is found in one local column to-day, with the vital, false and malicious statement in the last issue of the Digest.

The one is the statement of a high-minded, honorable gentleman, and the other is the statement of a miserable, blinded, bigoted peritrix.

The reat that could indicate the article which appeared in the Digest must be lost to all sense of honor. Profound and blind fanaticism has so preyed upon that sheet, engaged as it has been for the last two years, in stirring up the worst passions of the human heart, is deserving only of the condemnation of a Christian community and the contempt of all honest men.

GET THE WORDS
P. H. MILLER,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Farmers who have been to the market, and who have been there in the last few weeks, will find that the price of horse powder has been raised to $1.00 per pound. This is a great increase, and it is due to the fact that the price of horses has been raised to $1.00 per head. The price of horses has been raised to $1.00 per head, and the price of horse powder has been raised to $1.00 per pound.

SO TO MILLER'S HORSES AND HORSE POWDER.

MILLER'S HORSE POWDER.

It costs 50 cents a pound. Hundreds of pounds of horse powder are sent to the market every day.
